E. H. Taylor is going to stand his French Horse, Roscoe, at Westville, Mo., the coming seoson, besides making a stand at home. This is a horse that every farmer within his reach ought to see before he breeds his mares this season. He is a large French horse and combines the qualities of the heavy draft horse with the good road qualities of the roadster. The horses of Ros coe's breed are quick in their movements, excellent walkers and on the road are the equals of horses of much lighter weight. Farmers, as a rule, live too far from town for such horses as the English draft and Norman to be serviceable—they are allow in movement and not designed to be driven out of a walk. Mr. Taylor has a fine Kentucky Jack which he will stand with his horse
